California's Firm Stand.

Whereas, One Brigham H. Roberts has been chosen by the voters of Utah as a member of the House of Representatives; and

Whereas, Brigham H. Roberts has been convicted and sentenced to prison for the crime of adultery and fornication, and is notoriously living in a state of polygamy in defiance of the moral sense of the nation; and

Whereas, Brigham H. Roberts in his practices is but representative of the principles of the Mormon hierarchy, and his recent by Congress will be taken as an evidence that the assaults of the Mormon hierarchy on the basic principle of the family life of the nation are resolved with toleration, if not with approval; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, that we urge the House of Representatives to deny participation in its councils to Brigham H. Roberts; and further, be it

Resolved, That we request Congress to submit to the legislatures of the several States an amendment to the Constitution forbidding polygamy within the United States, or in any place subject to their jurisdiction, and making a polygamist ineligible to public office. Resolution passed unanimously by the California Legislature.

NEW YORK'S SECOND VIGOROUS PROTEST.

Whereas, The election of Brigham H. Roberts, of the State of Utah, a polygamist in faith and practice, may reasonably be regarded as dangerous to the morals of the people of all the other States who believe in purity and the sanctity of the home; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the people of the State of New York, through their representatives in the Legislature, request the members of Congress from this State to take, at the earliest possible moment, the steps necessary to deprive the said Brigham H. Roberts of his seat in Congress.—ASSEMBLYMAN TRAINOR'S RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE HOUSE AT ALBANY.

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 7.—The Legislature of California has declared itself in emphatic protest against the seating of Polygamist Roberts in the Congress of the United States. The joint resolution introduced by Senator Shortridge, which passed the Senate several days ago, came up in the Assembly this afternoon.

The feeling against the malodorous crime of polygamy was so strong that no debate was necessary, and the joint resolution was unanimously adopted without a word of protest or even of inquiry. It will at once be forwarded to Washington.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Minnesota Legislature, memorialize and petition the Senators and Representatives from Kansas to oppose the seating of said Roberts as a member of Congress, and so to arrange for polygamists being forever barred from seats in the halls of the Congress of the United States.

The Wanamaker Store

The New Cotton Fabrics

THESE, the first blossoms of Spring, are in full bloom on our counters, and every day sees new beauties there.

Daintier fabrics than these muslins and organdies and lawns are not made by man. All over the world designers struggle for pre-eminence in prettiness. And all over the world go our collectors picking the best from this bewildering variety.

Superiority lies in three factors; the selection, the price and the variety, and the greatest of these is the variety.

Judge us by our cotton dress stuffs for a while. If we do not show the most, the prettiest, the newest and the cheapest, we fail in our intention.

Ninety per cent. of our patterns are ours alone;—exclusive.

Fancy embroidered Swiss Muslins, 75c. to $1.50 yd.
Printed Batiste, 10c. to 12 1/2c. yd.
Printed Corded Lace Lawns, 8c. yd.
Printed Lawns, 7c. yd.
Scotch Novelty Gingham, 20c. to 65c. yd.
Domestic Woven Gingham, 10c. to 25c. yd.
Silk Plaid Madras, 40c. yd.
Silk Striped Gingham, 37 1/2c. yd.
Silk Striped Zephyr Tissue, 51c. yd.
Madras Shirtings, 35c. yd.
Oxford Cheviot, 10c. to 35c. yd.
Printed Fines, 15c. to 25c. yd.

Children's Underwear. A complete readjustment in our stock of these goods makes possible the following exceptional opportunity. Of course, we haven't all sizes in every style, but all sizes are in the collection. This is what we have done to the prices:

At 10c.—Children's plain muslin drawers; sizes 2 to 10 yrs.; were 15c. and 18c.
At 12c. to 25c.—Children's trimmed drawers; sizes 2 to 14 yrs.; were 17c. to 33c.
At 40c. and 60c.—Children's gowns, in a variety of styles; sizes 2 to 14 yrs.; were 60c. to $1.25.
At 35c.—Children's nainsook dresses, with yokes of fine Swiss embroidery; sizes 6 months to 3 yrs.; were 50c.

Second floor, Fourth avenue. Men's All-Linear Handkerchiefs. All-linear handkerchiefs are not generally sold at the prices of cotton; but this is the old story of buying all the maker had. That's why we can offer you prices like these:

At $1 doz.—Men's all-linear hemstitched handkerchiefs.
At $1.50 doz.—Men's all-linear initialed handkerchiefs.
At $2.30 doz.—Men's all-linear laundered handkerchiefs.

This is about a third less than they deserve. Rubber Overshoes and Boots. This is a good place to buy such goods, because we want to have anything to do with the tricky stuff that so often masquerades as respectable. Qualities here are tried and proved, but we get the prices down for all that, although not quite to the trash basis.

Everything in foot overwear from the baby's tiny rubber sandal and the little man's prairie "wubber boots," to the sportsman's wading boots of impressive proportions.

Including, of course, all the shapes and sizes in light and heavy over shoes, footholds and Arctics.

It isn't a bit of an exaggeration to say that these cheap and simple articles rise to the importance of real preservers of life during such walking as is now and is to be.

Here are half a dozen sorts in cloth and stockinet that you may choose from at

One Dollar a Pair. Some have been $2. All sizes are in the lot.

Fourth avenue and Ninth street. An Offering of link-button In Cuff Buttons that hurried men like best,—the plain, neat, gold dumb-bell that goes into the most refractory button-hole without tearing or bending or breaking, and look well always.

Solid gold, 10k., chased, plain and enamelled, and we have been selling them from $2.50 to $3. But to-day, for reasons, we offer them at $1.75 a Pair. Broadway and Tenth street. Valentines. Five large counters on the second floor and two on the main floor are piled high with these dainty fancies, freshly gathered from the most famous makers in Europe. The prices speak for themselves:

At 2c. to 35c.—Lace Valentines.
At 2c. to 6c.—Flat Cards.
At 3c. to 8c.—Folding Cards.
At 15c. to 22c.—Drop Cards.
At 2c. to 8c.—Heart Shaped Cards.
At 10c. to 20c.—Booklets.
At 18c. to 35c.—Novelty Cards.
At $1.35 to $8.—Hand Painted Sackets.
